The Board of Directors' proposal regarding instructions for the Nomination Committee (item 12)

Instructions for the Nomination Committee

This document has been prepared by the Board of Directors of Clinical Laserthermia Systems AB, reg.nr 556705-8903 (the "Company") and adopted at the Annual General Meeting of the Company on June 29, 2023. The instructions shall be reviewed and approved by the Annual General Meeting at least once (1) per year.

This document is owned by the general meeting. The Nomination Committee has the right to carry out the necessary update of the document prior to submission to the Annual General Meeting for approval.

1 Appointment of members of the Nomination Committee

The company shall have a nomination committee consisting of a total of four (4) members. The two (2) largest Class A shareholders in terms of voting rights and the two (2) largest Class B shareholders (hereinafter referred to as both directly registered shareholders and nominee-registered shareholders), based on the ownership statistics that the Company receives from Euroclear Sweden AB as of September 30th each year, are entitled to appoint one (1) member each to the Nomination Committee.

In connection with the appointment of a new Nomination Committee, the Chairman of the Board shall, in an appropriate manner, contact the two (2) largest identified Class A shareholders and the two (2) largest identified Class B shareholders and invite them to, within a reasonable period of time, which may not exceed 30 days, either notify in writing that the latter itself wishes to enter or in writing Name the person the shareholder wishes to appoint as a member of the Nomination Committee. If the shareholder asked does not exercise his or her right to appoint a member, the shareholder next to the votes shall have the right to appoint a member to the Nomination Committee and so on until the Nomination Committee consists of four (4) members. However, more than four (4) additional shareholders in addition to the two (2) largest Class A shareholders and two (2) largest Class B shareholders do not need to be contacted, unless the Chairman of the Board finds that there are special reasons for doing so.

Information about the finally appointed Nomination Committee shall include the names of the four (4) appointed members, together with the names of the shareholders who appointed them and shall be announced no later than six (6) months before the planned Annual General Meeting. The Nomination Committee's term of office extends until a new Nomination Committee has been appointed. The Chairman of the Nomination Committee shall, unless the members agree otherwise, be the member appointed by the largest Class A shareholder in terms of voting rights.

If one or more of the shareholders who have appointed members of the Nomination Committee no longer belong to the two (2) largest Class A shareholders or two (2) largest Class B shareholders respectively, members appointed by these shareholders shall make their seats available and the shareholder or shareholders who have been added among the largest Class A shareholders in terms of voting rights or Class B shareholders shall have the right to appoint its members. However, unless special reasons exist, no changes shall be made in the composition of the Nomination Committee if only marginal changes in the number of votes have taken place or the change occurs later than three (3) months before the Annual General Meeting. Shareholders who have appointed a member of the Nomination Committee have the right to remove such member and appoint a new member of the Nomination Committee, as well as to appoint a new member if the member appointed by the shareholder chooses to leave the Nomination Committee. Changes in the composition of the Nomination Committee shall be announced as soon as they have occurred.

2 Tasks of the Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee shall submit proposals for:

- a) Chairman of the Annual General Meeting,
- b) the number of Board members and the number of auditors,
- c) fees and other remuneration to Board members, members of the various committees of the Board of Directors and fees to auditors,
- d) election of the Chairman of the Board and other Board members and election of auditors; and
- e) changes to the instructions for the Nomination Committee.

The Nomination Committee shall notify the Company of its proposals no later than six (6) weeks before the Annual General Meeting. In connection with the Nomination Committee's announcement of its proposals to the Company, the Nomination Committee shall also issue a statement containing the information to be published on the Company's website.

3 Meetings of the Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee meets as necessary. The Chairman of the Nomination Committee shall convene such a meeting, which shall be held as soon as possible from the request. The company's Chairman of the Board convenes the first meeting and, if necessary, shall be co-opted at the meetings of the Nomination Committee.

The Nomination Committee shall constitute a quorum if more than half of the members attend the meeting.

The Nomination Committee's decision is the opinion that more than half of those present vote for at the meeting. In the event of a tie, the Chairman of the Nomination Committee shall have the casting vote.

Minutes shall be taken at the meetings of the Nomination Committee. The decisions made by the Nomination Committee shall be recorded in the minutes. The minutes shall be signed by the person who has taken the minutes. It shall be approved by the Chairman of the Nomination Committee, if he has not kept the minutes. If the Chairman has taken the minutes, the minutes shall be approved by another member appointed by the Nomination Committee.

4 Fees and expenses

The members of the Nomination Committee shall not receive remuneration from the Company. Any expenses arising in connection with the work of the Nomination Committee shall be paid by the Company, provided that these have been approved by the Chairman of the Board.

5 Confidentiality

The members of the Nomination Committee may not unlawfully disclose to third parties' information about the Company's affairs or the work of the Nomination Committee that the member becomes aware of when performing his or her duties.

The Board of Directors' proposal for a resolution authorizing the Board of Directors to resolve on share (item 13)

The Board of Directors proposes that the Annual General Meeting resolves to authorize the Board of Directors, during the period until the next Annual General Meeting, to resolve on the issue of a maximum number of shares, convertibles and/or warrants that entitle to subscription of, or entail the issue of, a maximum number of shares within the limits of the Articles of Association, with or without deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights. The authorization may be exercised on one or more occasions and the Board of Directors shall have the right to decide on the detailed issue terms on each individual occasion. In addition to cash payment, payment may also be made with consideration other than in cash or by set-off, or otherwise with conditions.

In order for the company's current shareholders not to be disadvantaged in relation to the external investor or investors who may subscribe for shares in the company, the Board of Directors considers it appropriate that the issue with deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights shall be made at the Board's market-based subscription price, subject to a market-based issue discount where applicable.

A valid resolution requires that it has been supported by shareholders representing at least two-thirds of both the votes cast and the shares represented at the Annual General Meeting.

Personal data

Personal data retrieved from the share register maintained by Euroclear Sweden AB, notification of participation at the meeting and information about deputies, proxies and assistants will be used for registration, preparation of the voting list for the meeting and, where applicable, minutes of the meeting.
